INTRODUCTION

This book contains compilations of information on all faiths, as furnished by responsible officers of religious bodies, mainly for the United States. It is the 25th issue of this reference work. The Yearbook of American Churches is published annually. As an annual publication it records the yearly changes of officers of numerous religious organizations, and provides a continuous record of the statistics that are published at regular intervals by the numerous religious bodies. All the information contained herein comes from the officers of religious organizations themselves. The Yearbook simply prints what organized religion reports.

After long discussion it has been decided to use a method of dating followed by a number of publishers of reference works. Thus this "Edition for 1957" contains data gathered in 1956 and presents the latest information secured at as recent a date as practicable for the publication schedule. It is well known that information must be gathered some months prior to the printing of a book.

The information on organized religion, and on related organizations in which it is believed that many religious agencies have an interest, consists chiefly of directories and of statistical and historical data.

Among the eleven directories, one is on certain religious bodies in Canada. The largest directory is the one devoted to the religious bodies, or communions, in the United States. An effort is made to record all known denominations, and to report data for those willing to furnish documentary information. A few have declined to furnish information. The names and addresses of these are given, with a note indicating information has been declined. The aim of the Editor is to be inclusive, to expand the coverage, and not to pass judgment on the nature of the program carried on.

The "latest information" on statistics is given under categories of church membership, religious education, clergy, and finance. These figures are compiled for Continental United States, i.e., the 48 states and the District of Columbia, and thus are not always the total official figures published by a given religious body, because some denominations in the U.S. include members in Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, or even in other nations. The purpose in presenting a compilation for Continental U.S. is to provide data comparable with previous tabulations.

Studies of trends, comparing the latest statistics with those of prior years, are made for the purpose of aiding those who wish to make comparisons.

State and local councils are listed in three sections: those with paid leadership, those with voluntary leadership, and the state organizations of church women. It is understood that the local councils of church men are reported under the state and local councils of churches.

The user of this volume deserves a frank word concerning its limitations. A few of the directories do not contain every institution or organization in the United States. They do, however, contain large numbers of organizations believed to be needed in a national listing. There has not been available the staff time required to compile, or the money to print, the names of, say, every institution training clergymen, or every known religious periodical. Our listings have stood the pragmatic tests of many users.

All the information in this book has been supplied generously by others. It is possible to scrutinize and to check with previous reports the data supplied. Ordinarily, however, it has not been possible to verify these data. If in spite of great care errors have occurred, the Editor will thank the users of the book for corrections which will be made in the next edition.

The compilation and editing of the volume were committed to the Bureau of Research and Survey of the National Council. Executives and staff members of many units of the Council have shown an interest in the book and have gladly helped in the process of preparation.

Highlights

Among the information appearing in this book:

A total membership of 100,162,529 persons in 258 religious bodies in Continental United States is reported by official church statisticians in a compilation of "the latest information." Most of the bodies report figures for the calendar year 1955, or a fiscal year ending in 1955.

This is a gain of 2.8 per cent over the figures reported a year earlier. The population gain was 1.8 per cent. The number of Protestant members reported increased 2.3 per cent over the previous annual total; the number of Roman Catholics increased 3.1 per cent.

The total church membership is at a new high, as is the proportion of church members in the population—60.9 per cent.

The six major groups report members as follows:

Buddhist	63,000
Old Catholic and Polish National Catholic	367,370
Eastern Orthodox	2,386,945
Jewish	5,500,000
Roman Catholic	33,396,647
Protestant	58,448,567

The number of local churches reported by all faiths is 305,449, a gain of 1.8 per cent.

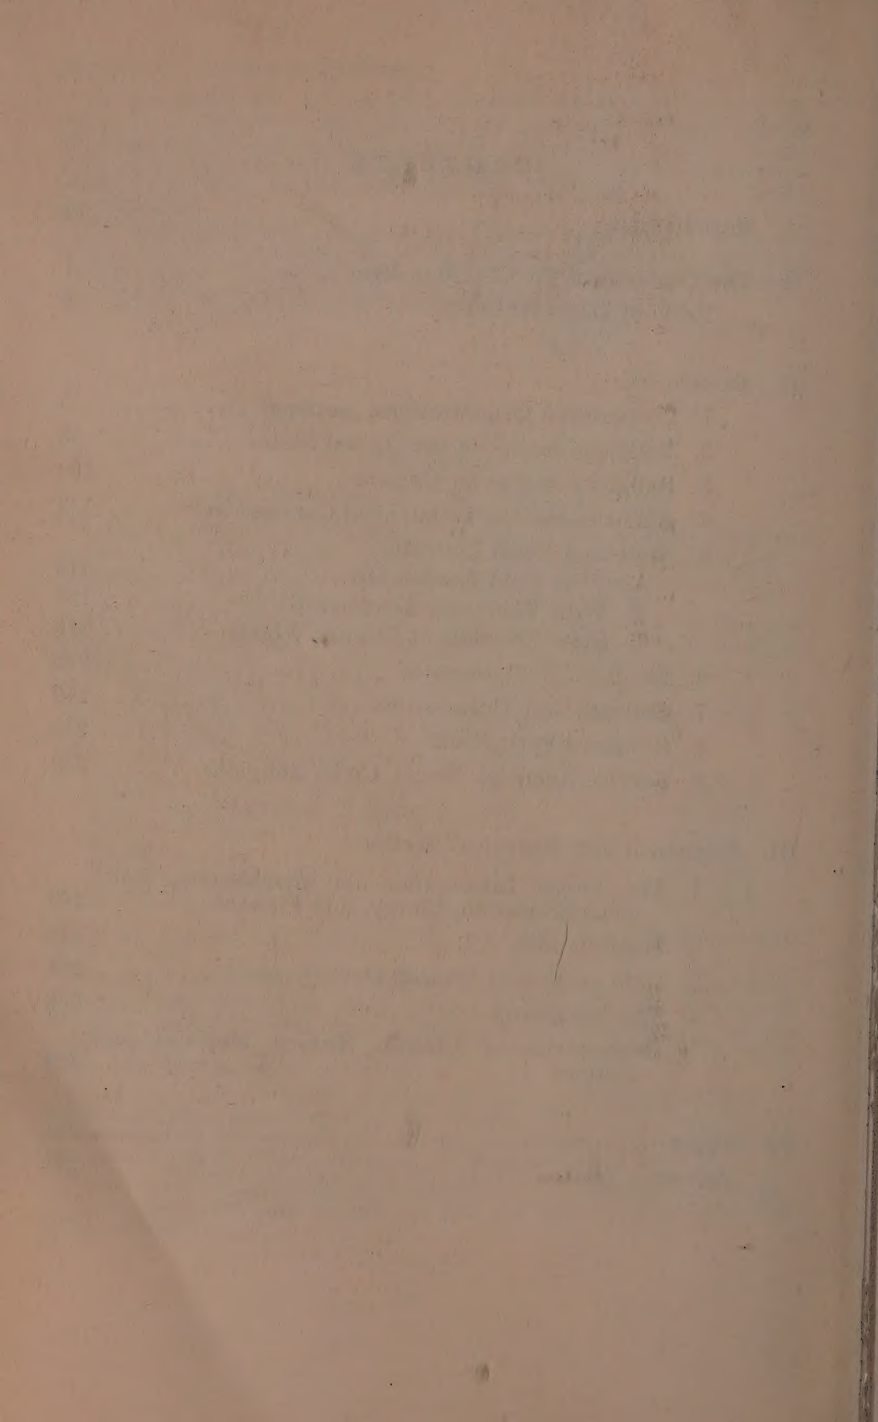

The total number of pastors reported having charges in local churches is 222,018. Only 222 bodies made a report on this item. The number of Protestant pastors reported with charges now stands at 201,316. All reporting bodies give a total of 353,695 ordained persons, many of these being retired or in other vocations.

There is a total enrollment of 38,921,033 persons in 264,726 Sunday or Sabbath schools. These have 3,029,386 teachers and officers. The gain in enrollment was 3.4 per cent for the year. Protestant churches reported 92.7 per cent of the total enrollment, or 36,084,485 persons.

There are 82 religious bodies with 50,000 or more members each, and these reported 98,571,528 persons, or 98.4 per cent of all members of religious bodies.

NOTES:

Harvest Festivals are observed on appropriate Sundays from August through November.

This Calendar is in large part based upon an insert for "The Christian Year," a Suggestive Guide for the Worship of the Church in the Pamphlet Library on Worship published by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., 297 Fourth Ave., New York 10, N. Y. (Out of print.)

A TABLE OF DATES AHEAD

The following table indicates when Easter and other important festival days occur during the next few years. It also indicates the number of Sundays during Epiphany and after Pentecost for each year of the period. Easter may come as early as March 22nd or as late as April 25th, thus bringing a wide variation in the number of Sundays included in certain of the Christian seasons.

2. RELIGIOUS BODIES IN THE UNITED STATES*

ADVENTIST BODIES

Advent Christian Church

A branch of the original Adventist group, composed of ministers and churches which withdrew from the American Millennial Association between 1854 and 1860, as a result of controversy over the question of immortality. As a corollary to their belief in conditional immortality, the group also held to the utter extinction of the wicked after the judgment. The General Conference was organized in 1860.

* Church statistics are fully tabulated in the section on statistics. Those given here are the figures reported by the official statisticians of the various religious bodies. They are for the calendar year 1955, or for a fiscal year ending in 1955. When the data are for another year, that year follows the figure given. "No report" indicates that there has been no information from the religious body. "No data" means that the religious body has no information for the particular item.

Obviously the religious bodies here listed are of all faiths in the United States, and are not confined to the membership of the National Council of Churches, or of any other council of churches.

Seventh-day Adventists

This Protestant body developed out of an interdenominational movement that appeared in different countries of Christendom in the early decades of the nineteenth century, stressing the imminence of the Second Advent of Christ. However, Seventh-day Adventists were not formally organized until 1863. Taking the Bible as their sole rule of faith and practice, they are fundamentally evangelical, holding to the full inspiration of the Scriptures and the deity of Christ. Their two cardinal points of faith are: (1) belief in the personal, imminent, pre-millennial return of Christ, and (2) observance of the seventh day as the Sabbath.

The Russian Orthodox Church Outside Russia

(Formerly The Russian Orthodox Church Abroad)

Organized in 1920 to unite in one body of dioceses the missions and parishes of the Russian Orthodox Church outside of Russia. The governing body was set up in Constantinople sponsored by the Ecumenical Patriarchate. In 1921 headquarters were transferred to Sremsky Karlovtsy, Yugoslavia. From the end of World War II until 1950 the Synod was in Munich, Germany. In November, 1950, it came to the United States. The Russian Orthodox Church Outside Russia lays emphasis on being true to the old traditions of the Russian Church, but it does not compromise with official church leaders in Moscow, "since that would amount to being under the influence and direction of a godless State."

In addition to those in the United States, the Synod has dioceses and communities in Canada, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Paraguay, Uruguay, Peru and Venezuela. There are diocesan bishops in London, Paris, Munich, Salzburg and in Australia and New Zealand; parishes in North Africa, Turkey and Iran, and there is a Mission in Palestine.

Jehovah's witnesses

"Jehovah's witnesses adhere to the oldest religion on earth, the worship of Almighty God revealed in his Bible as Jehovah. From man's beginning there have been at all times some of Jehovah's witnesses on earth, adhering to the Bible principle of separateness from all parts of the world organization of men. In modern times Jehovah's witnesses are primitive Christians, recognizing and teaching the Bible as God's word of truth, believing it and following its commandments, which accounts for their consistent neutrality toward any nationalistic interests. They use the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania, Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., International Bible Students Association, and other corporations in their earth-wide preaching activity, and preach to all regardless of denomination. To be one of Jehovah's witnesses one must make an unconditional individual dedication to do the will of Almighty God and then must proceed faithfully to obey the commandments of God and Christ as expressed in the Bible, which course of action is the worship of God and is true religion.

"Therefore, all of Jehovah's witnesses are ministers of the gospel and have no human leader. Their Yearbook shows them active during 1955 in 158 countries of the earth, where there are approximately 640,000 such ministers preaching, teaching the people of all nations that God's word is true and that their only hope is in the Kingdom of Jehovah under Christ Jesus which has been established to rule over earth and which will replace all governments of man. There are now 3,484 congregations in continental United States with 187,120 members (ministers), and worldwide 16,044 congregations." (From a statement by the President of Jehovah's witnesses to the Editor of the Yearbook of American Churches.)

The Methodist Church

The present organization of The Methodist Church began in May, 1939, with the unification of three branches of Methodism—the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church. All three of the uniting churches were in unbroken historical connection with Methodism in America. The 1948 General Conference adopted a resolution stating that the Christmas Conference of 1784 is regarded as the date on which the organized Methodist Church was founded as an ecclesiastical organization. At this Conference, held in Lovely Lane Chapel, Baltimore, Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke were elected superintendents and a program of expansion was outlined. The Methodist movement began in England with John and Charles Wesley, leaders of an evangelical revival, and was carried to America in 1760 by Methodist emigrants from Ireland.

Muslims

There are local centers of worship among Muslims in the U.S.A. A mosque, said to be in accord with the full Muslim traditions, was erected in 1953 in Washington, D. C. There are perhaps 15 or 20 places of worship in cities in the nation. There is apparently no general organization, and there are only the most informal estimates of the number of persons affiliated with the local centers. It may be that there are from ten to twenty thousand persons who participate in these places of worship.

The information in this paragraph has been gathered by the Editor of this Yearbook, by means of correspondence and interviews with Muslims in the U.S.A.

Cumberland Presbyterian Church

An outgrowth of the Great Revival of 1800, the Cumberland Presbytery was organized on February 4, 1810, in Dickson County, Tenn., by three Presbyterian ministers, the Revs. Finis Ewing, Samuel King, and Samuel McAdow. Contributing factors to the organization were a rejection by the founders of the doctrine of fatality of the Westminster Confession of Faith, and an insistence that the rigid standards of the Presbyterian Church for the education of the clergy be relaxed in the light of extraordinary circumstances existing on the American frontier. The presbytery for a time sought admission into the Presbyterian Church, but, failing in this effort, developed eventually into a denomination. A union with the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., in 1906 was only partially successful. A considerable segment, to whom the terms of union were unsatisfactory, perpetuated the Cumberland Presbyterian Church as a separate denomination.

United Presbyterian Church of North America

This body dates back to the Reformed Presbyterian (Covenanter) Church (1643) and the Associate Presbyterian (Seceder) Church (1733), both of Scot-land. These two groups appeared in America in 1774 and 1753 respectively. They united and became the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in 1782. A minority, however, continued as the Associate Presbyterian Church, but in 1858 the two groups united and became the United Presbyterian Church as above.

Churches: 833. Inclusive Membership: 244,973.

The Universalist Church of America

A democratic religious body believing in the worthiness of man and his ability to create the good life (Kingdom of God) for all men in this world. Modern Universalism emphasizes confidence in God and human nature, the universality of truth, the use of the scientific method in the quest for wiser human relationships, the right of each member to formulate his own philosophy of religion and the universal religious truths found in all of the great world religions.

The philosophy of Universalism originated with the doctrine of universal salvation in the first century A.D., and was carried to America in the 18th century by Dr. George DeBennville, a French Huguenot, and John Murray, an Englishman.

5. STATE AND LOCAL COUNCILS

This section contains a directory of state and local councils of churches and of religious education. It is divided into councils with paid leadership and councils with voluntary leadership. There is also a directory of state councils of church women. These directories are compiled by the National Council of Churches.

When the name of a city is omitted from an address of an individual, the city is the same as that of the organization.

A. WITH PAID LEADERSHIP

B. WITH VOLUNTARY LEADERSHIP

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The following list comprises councils of churches and of religious education, with voluntary leadership. In order to conserve space, the term "council of churches" is not repeated with each entry.

Thus, e.g., "Mobile Council of Churches" is printed "Mobile," and the officer or officers follow with their addresses.

When the name of the agency is not a council of churches, it is printed in full.

STATISTICAL AND HISTORICAL SECTION

This section contains:

1. "The latest information" on church membership, religious education, and clergy, compiled from reports made by the official statisticians of religious bodies, for Continental United States. The figures furnished and here tabulated are mainly for the calendar year, 1955, or for a fiscal year ending in 1955. The methods used in this compilation are more fully described below. The most recent statistics on giving, as reported by a large number of religious bodies in the U.S.A. and Canada, and as published by the National Council's Department of Stewardship and Benevolence, are reprinted.
2. Studies of trends in church statistics, in some instances since 1926, in others since 1939. These studies are made for the purpose of aiding the user in understanding the significance of the annual compilation.
3. Brief excerpts from recent studies of church developments.
4. Information on recent publication of the Scriptures.
5. A list of depositories of church history material and sources.

1. THE LATEST INFORMATION

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

The reports on church membership received from official statisticians of religious bodies reveal a total membership of 100,162,529 persons in 258 bodies in 1955, compared with a total of 97,482,611 persons in 1954, published in the previous YEARBOOK. These figures are for Continental United States, i.e., the 48 states and the District of Columbia.

The total number of church members is equal to over 60.9 per cent of the population in Continental United States. This is the highest proportion of the population ever recorded to be on the church rolls.

The gain of 2,679,918 persons is equal to 2.8 per cent for the year. The number of Protestants reported increased 2.3 per cent over the previous annual total. The number of Roman Catholics increased 3.1 per cent.

Between 1954 and 1955 the estimated population of Continental United States increased 1.8 per cent.

There were 305,449 local churches reported, compared with 300,056 a year earlier. The gain is equal to 1.8 per cent.

Of 268 religious bodies listed, there are 258 reporting church membership.

Of the total increase of 2,679,918 persons reported over the previous tabulation of the latest information, 444,527 members are reported by five bodies reporting this time and not the past year. Of these, 250,000 are from the Conservative Baptist Association, and 187,120 from Jehovah's witnesses. The latter body designates all its members as "ministers." One small body reported last year and not this year.

Six bodies reported the number of local churches this year and not the year before. These accounted for 4,630 local churches.

An analysis of the latest information in six major groups reveals the following:

¹ The figures for Jewish Congregations represent combined data for the three branches of Judaism: Orthodox, Conservative, Reform.

There are also Muslims in the United States, but no statistical reports are available. Informal estimates are cited in the directory of religious bodies in this YEARBOOK.

The Protestant church membership was equal to over 58 per cent of all church membership in 1955—about the same as a year earlier. It seems that the major religious groups have developed in about the same relation to each other during the last 50 years. The data for 1926-54 are more fully discussed below.

A recital of these trends and data gives rise to the usual questions about definitions of membership. The Roman Catholics count all baptized persons, including infants. The Jews regard as members all Jews in communities having congregations. The Eastern Orthodox Churches include all persons in their nationality or cultural groups. Most Protestant bodies count only the persons who have attained full membership, and previous estimates have indicated that all but a small minority of these are over 13 years of age. However, many Lutheran bodies and the Protestant Episcopal Church now report all baptized persons, and not only those confirmed.

The Church of Christ, Scientist, did not furnish membership figures because of a regulation of that body that forbids "the numbering of people and the reporting of such statistics for publication." In the Census of Religious Bodies, 1936, published by the U. S. Bureau of the Census, there were reported 268,915 members of the Church of Christ, Scientist.

The table giving the latest information on church membership follows:

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

There were 264,726 Sunday or Sabbath schools in all religious bodies, with 3,029,386 teachers and officers, and a total enrollment of 38,921,033 persons.

A year earlier there was reported a total enrollment of 37,623,530. Thus the increase was 1,297,503, or 3.4 per cent.

The Protestant churches, which have generally emphasized the Sunday school, reported 92.7 per cent of the total enrollment, and 93 per cent a year earlier. The total Protestant enrollment in this compilation is 36,084,485 persons.

The figure of 2,277,948 persons, furnished by the publishers of the Official Catholic Directory is that for public school children receiving religious instruction. A comparable figure has been published in previous YEARBOOKS. For the previous year the number was 2,087,395.

Helen F. Spaulding of the staff of the Bureau of Research and Survey of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. has commented as follows on trends in Sunday school enrollment:

"Sunday school enrollment showed a healthy and continuous growth during the first third of the century. Then during the thirties something happened; momentum slowed down, and some of the religious bodies actually registered a loss. It was not until 1947 that there were definite signs of recovery."

NUMBER OF CLERGY

The inquiry to statisticians of religious bodies asked for information on only two questions: The number of pastors having charges, and the total number of ordained persons. The reports are, as for the previous book, incomplete. Only 222 bodies made a report for pastors having charges.

This year the total number of pastors reported as having charges is 222,018; the total number of ordained persons is 353,695.

Direct comparisons with previous years cannot be made because of the incomplete reporting. In the previous YEARBOOK there were reported 213,167 pastors having charges, and 341,422 ordained persons. Many pastors leave the ministry for other occupations or are retired, but their names are often included among the total number of clergymen reported by religious bodies.

According to the federal census of population, in 1940 there were 140,077 clergy of all faiths; in 1950 there were 168,419.

The table containing the latest information follows:

GROUPS OF RELIGIOUS BODIES

GROUPS OF RELIGIOUS BODIES

There is presented this year a tabulation of the latest information for the "families" or groups of religious bodies in the table that follows. In the parenthesis following the name of the "family" or group is the number of bodies reporting. No comparison is made with a previous year, because in some groups the same bodies do not report year by year.

In Explanation of the Annual Compilation of Church Statistics

1. This report contains "the latest information," tabulated just prior to the printing of the book.

2. It contains data for Continental United States only. This means the 48 states and the District of Columbia. The purpose in publishing this figure is to make it comparable with previous tabulations made for many years on the same basis.

3. Many bodies, when they publish their total membership, include members outside Continental United States. Thus the figure we publish may be less than the total official membership.

4. It may be that religious bodies will publicly report later figures than those given here, and may even report them about the time these figures are released. There is no way of avoiding this because the various religious bodies make their reports public at different times of the year.

5. These figures come from the official statisticians of the religious bodies. They are gathered by means of a standardized form mailed on the same day to all statisticians. The aim of the editor is to gather the figures from all religious bodies at the same time, with equal procedure and fairness to all.

CHURCH GIVING

A Compilation of the Latest Information, Completed November, 1955

(Reprint of Statistics of Giving, November, 1955, by the Joint Department of Stewardship and Benevolence of the National Council of Churches.)

Contributions totalling $1,687,921,729 are reported by 49 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox Churches in the United States. Eighty per cent of this amount—$1,353,553,358—was for congregational expenses while contributions to benevolences, including home and foreign missions, amounted to $334,368,371 or 20 per cent.

Forty-one of the 49 bodies reported last year as well as this and showed a 9.3 per cent gain in total contributions—$1,671,111,648 this year as compared with $1,527,935,191 last year. These same 41 bodies showed a 10.1 per cent gain in contributions to congregational expenses, and an 8.2 per cent gain in total benevolences.

The per member total contribution in the 41 bodies was $48.81 this year as compared with $45.63 a year earlier, a gain of 7 per cent. For benevolences it was $9.60 this year as compared with $9.07 last year, a gain of 5.8 per cent.*

CANADIAN CHURCH REPORTS

The latest information from six religious bodies in Canada reveals total contributions of $68,810,562, congregational expenses of $55,609,993, and total benevolences of $13,200,569. The gain over last year is not quite so great as is indicated, owing to the fact that the Anglican Church of Canada has included parish capital expenditures this year for the first time.

The five bodies reporting last year as well as this showed total contributions of $50,637,922 as compared with $47,206,390, a gain of 7.3 per cent; congregational expenses of $40,947,516 as compared with $37,874,123, a gain of 8.1 per cent; and total benevolences of $9,690,406 as compared with $9,332,267, a gain of 3.8 per cent.

Per member contributions of the five bodies were as follows: total contributions, $41.75 as compared with $39.77 last year; congregational expenses, $33.76 this year as compared with $31.91 last year; and total benevolences, $7.99 as compared with $7.86.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

For foreign missions, 49 bodies in the United States reported $65,091,334 and a per member gift of $1.67. For the 40 bodies reporting contributions to foreign missions both years, the total this year was $64,017,082 and a year earlier $59,215,291. The per member gift for the 40 bodies was $1.87 this year and $1.77 a year ago.

* Per member figures for the 41 bodies differ slightly from the figures in the tables.

STATISTICAL AND HISTORICAL SECTION

NEW BUILDINGS AND OTHER CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

Contributions toward new buildings accounted for a large share of the contributions toward congregational expenses in churches in the United States judging from reports from 18 of the 49 bodies included in this year's report. Out of a total of $679,637,421 contributed for congregational expenses in these 18 bodies, $213,547,055 or 31.4 per cent was used for new buildings.

SOURCES

The data for Statistics of Giving are secured directly from the denominations. This is the only available source of such information. In spite of the fact that these are official reports, it should be noted that differences in denominational record keeping and reporting systems make it difficult to fit all the data into common categories. Every effort is made to provide a consistent and accurate tabulation of the material submitted.

The current report is the 35th of a series, begun by the United Stewardship Council. The United Stewardship Council was one of the agencies merged in 1950 to form the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. The Joint Department of Stewardship and Benevolence of the National Council is the successor to the United Stewardship Council.

The reports here presented are from only a portion of the religious bodies in the United States. Total giving to all bodies can only be estimated, and no estimate has been made during the past few years.

DEFINITIONS

These statistics are furnished by national officials of the religious bodies reporting.

Budget Benevolence includes contributions from living donors to the benevolent budget of the denomination as determined by the proper authority.

Denominational Benevolence includes all of Budget Benevolences and such other contributions for the work of the denomination reporting as may be reported to denominational headquarters.

Other Benevolences are contributions for various benevolences not in the denominational list, and includes only a small part of what is actually contributed, because only what is reported to denominational headquarters is included here.

Total Benevolences is the sum of Denominational Benevolences and Other Benevolences.

Congregational Expenses includes contributions to expenses of the local parish or church, including building funds, repairs, fuel, minister's salary—anything that is for the local church.

Total Contributions is the sum of Total Benevolence and Congregational Expenses.

CONCERNING MEMBERSHIP

The per member gifts here published are computed by use of the figure on membership furnished by the official reporting the data on giving. This official was asked to supply a figure of membership, 13 years of age and over. In some instances, the official reported or estimated membership 13 years of age and over, and in other instances, the figure was "inclusive" or "total membership," larger than the number 13 years of age and over.

The figures on giving are gathered at a different time than the annual compilation of church membership by the Bureau of Research and Survey, published in the Yearbook of American Churches.

³ This figure represents contributions for Congregational Expenses in 1953. ⁴ Congregational expenses and total contributions have been revised to include an additional $5,508,883 reported by the Disciples of Christ after publication of last year's report. ⁵ This body was formerly known as the Church of England in Canada. The large increase in Congregational Expenses is due to the inclusion of parish capital expenditures this year for the first time.

2. SOME TRENDS

The annual compilation of statistics on church membership and religious education can best be understood by comparison with figures for previous years. In this section available church statistics for earlier years are summarized.

Proportion of Church Members in the Population

Throughout the history of the United States, the proportion of church members in the total population has risen. Data for more than a century are given in Table I, below. In 1850, 16 per cent of the population were recorded on the church membership rolls. By 1950, 57 per cent of the people were so reported. In 1955, the percentage was 60.9 per cent.

Prior to the Census of Religious Bodies, 1926, the basis of reporting members in a number of religious bodies was different from that followed in 1926 and since. For example, prior to 1926 a few bodies reported only heads of families as members; and a few other bodies at about that time began reporting as members all baptized persons, including infants, as members, instead of only adults. Thus the figures in the table for 1920 and prior years are not on the same basis as those in 1930 and following years.

It is apparent that the gains officially reported were at a more rapid rate from 1940 on than during the preceding two decades. The figures themselves obviously do not tell the reasons. But there is statistical evidence that the people turned to the churches in 1940-55, to a greater extent than during the 20's or the 30's. See Table I and Chart.

Inclusive Membership of Religious Bodies

The number of church members of all faiths increased from 54,576,346 in 1926 to 86,830,490 in 1950, and 100,162,529 in 1955.

During the same period the population of Continental United States increased from 117,136,000 in 1926 to 164,595,000 in 1955.

The figures for 1950 and 1955 appearing in Table II below include estimates of the number of persons in the armed forces serving overseas, since the church members among those in the armed services are undoubtedly included on the rolls of their home churches.

CHART

For a comparison of the trends, see Tables II and III below. The gains of the churches have been far more rapid than the increase in the population.

Members Per Church Increasing

Since 1926, the average membership per local church (parish, congregation) of all religious bodies has been increasing. In 1926 the figure was 235; by 1950, it was 304; and by 1955, 328.

Comparing 1926 and 1955, the increase was 39 per cent (see Table IV).

Sunday and Sabbath Schools

The total number of Sunday and Sabbath schools in all religious bodies increased from 184,686 in 1926 to 246,240 in 1950, and 264,726 in 1955. (The term Sabbath schools is used to designate the schools of those bodies that observe the Sabbath on Saturday.)

The total enrollment in schools in all religious bodies increased from 23,206,374 persons in 1926 to 29,775,357 in 1950, and 38,921,033 in 1955 (see Table V).

Protestant and Roman Catholic Comparisons

No precise comparison is possible between Protestant and Roman Catholic figures. Most Protestant churches enumerate as members persons who have attained full membership, usually at age 13. Probably 90 to 95 per cent of Protestant members are over 13 years of age. Roman Catholics regard all baptized persons, including children, as members.

Since 1926, the total membership of Protestant churches increased from 31,511,701 to 50,079,578 in 1950, and 58,448,567 in 1955 (see Table VI).

Protestants were 27 per cent of the total population of Continental United States in 1926; 33.8 per cent in 1950; and 35.5 per cent in 1955 (see Table VII).

The membership of the Roman Catholic Church increased from 18,605,003 persons in 1926 to 28,634,878 in 1950, and 33,396,647 in 1955 (see Tables VIII and IX). Roman Catholics were 20.3 per cent of total population in 1955.

3. DATA ON RECENT CHURCH DEVELOPMENTS

CHURCH ATTENDANCE POLLS

According to sample polls of adults, 21 years of age and over, announced December 31, 1955, by the American Institute of Public Opinion, Princeton, N.J., 48.8 per cent of the persons interviewed stated that they had attended church during the week preceding the interview.

Similar polls have been made by the Institute since 1939, and the results were summarized as follows:

Date	Per cent of Adults Attending Church
February 1939	41
November 1940	37
May 1942	36
May 1947	45
April 1950	39
July 1954	46
December 1955	48.8

"1. Catholics were found to be more faithful in their church attendance than Protestants. And Protestants attended more often than those of Jewish faith.

"2. In church attendance women outnumber men.

"3. Persons who have had a college education go more often than those who have had a high school education. And persons with a high school education, in turn, attend more frequently than those who have not gone to high school.

"4. Church-going was about the same in all sections of the country except in the Far West where substantially fewer persons go to church.

"5. Highest attendance was found in the smaller cities—those between 2,500 and 50,000 population.

"6. Little difference was found in attendance by season of the year during the year 1955."

Following is a summary of the data released December 31, 1955:

COMPARISONS BY GROUPS

	Percentage Attending
Men	43
Women	54
Catholics	74
Protestants	42
Jews	27
21-29 years	47
30-49 years	52

Midwest	49
South	51
Far West	38

Why is there an increase in church-going? The Institute reported, December 17, 1954, answers given by a sample of adults, 21 years of age and over, to a question as follows:

"Figures show that there are more people going to church these days. How do you account for this increase in church-going?"

"Their replies:

"Fear, unrest, uncertainty of future	30%
"Renewed faith in God as Supreme Being	19
"Postwar reaction, effect of religion on military personnel	11
"Church programming, publicity better	9
"Eisenhower influence	2
"Miscellaneous	12
"Don't know	22

105%

"The table adds to more than 100 per cent because some people gave more than one explanation. An additional 2 per cent said church attendance was off in their communities.

"While every group in the population agrees on the top two principal explanations, it is interesting to note that better church programming and publicity is named as the third reason by men, by people in the 50 years and over age group and by adults living in the Southern states.

"Proportionately more Catholics than Protestants say the increase is due to postwar reaction and the effect of religion on military personnel," the survey finds.

WOMEN IN THE MINISTRY

Since the publication of the 1953 Yearbook, the Bureau of the Census has published figures reporting 6,777 women clergymen, or 4.1 per cent of the total number of clergymen, which was 168,419, according to the population census of 1950. The figures are for all religious bodies of all faiths, and there are no separate figures according to religious body.

A study of available published reports, appearing in Information Service, May 31, 1952, revealed 5,791 ordained or licensed women ministers, of whom 2,896 were pastors of local churches. Of the pastors reported about one-tenth were in communions affiliated with the National Council of Churches. A precise count could not be made, and the data were limited to the denominations publishing data. The figures could not be compared directly with any other compilation. It appears that 63 religious bodies ordain women, while a total of 77 bodies ordain or license. Seven of these "give women special status of some sort."

For a later discussion, "Women Ministers Today," see Information Service, National Council of Churches, March 6, 1954.

MINISTERS' SALARIES IN THREE RELIGIOUS BODIES, 1939-54

Because there is considerable public interest in ministers' salaries, and incomplete information available on the subject, we continue our canvass of published information on three religious bodies that have reported since 1939. (See previous YEARBOOKS for earlier discussions, begun in the 1953 book.)

The three bodies are: Congregational Christian Churches, the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the United Presbyterian Church. It is possible that the trends in these three bodies are of general interest. The Congregational figures are cash salaries only. The figures for the other two bodies include rental allowance, actual rental value of dwellings furnished, or an estimate of the rental value of the minister's home.

To sum up the data in the table below:

STATISTICAL AND HISTORICAL SECTION

In the Congregational Christian Churches, the average salary, in current dollars, increased from $1,769 in 1939 to $3,972 in 1954, but in 1954 the salary in "1939 dollars" was $1,973, a slight increase from $1,809 in 1953.

In the United Presbyterian Church, the average annual salary was $1,979 in 1939, and $4,149 in 1954. In "1939 dollars" the 1954 figure was $2,061, a slight increase from $2,046 in 1953.

In the Episcopal Church, the average annual salary advanced from $2,725 in 1939 to $4,713 in 1954. But in "1939 dollars," the 1954 figure was $2,341. This was considerably above the $2,097 for 1948 in "1939 dollars." In 1953, the figure in "1939 dollars" was $2,365.

VALUE OF RELIGIOUS BUILDINGS

CHURCH-AFFILIATED DAY SCHOOLS

In 1952, there were about 3,000 Protestant church-affiliated day schools with about 187,000 children enrolled, compared with about 2,000 schools and 110,000 pupils in 1937. These were nursery, kindergarten and elementary schools. The figures appeared in Information Service, National Council of Churches, May 3, 1952. Later figures have not been available.

The Official Catholic Directory, 1952, New York, reported 2,692,706 pupils in 8,358 elementary parochial schools in the Roman Catholic Church, at that time an all-time high for that body. Later figures for Roman Catholics are found in subsequent annual issues of the Directory.

VALUE OF NEW CONSTRUCTION OF RELIGIOUS BUILDINGS

Estimates of the annual value of new construction of religious buildings, 1920-1955 inclusive, are found in U.S. Department of Commerce, "Construction Volume and Costs," a statistical supplement to Construction Review.

The published figures follow:

4. THE SCRIPTURES

In the 1953 Yearbook appeared comprehensive information concerning the publication of the Holy Bible: Revised Standard Version by Protestant scholars; the Confraternity Editions of the Scriptures of the Roman Catholics; and the plans for a complete Biblical Anthology by Rabbinical scholars (see pages 294-299 of the 1953 Yearbook). Included was a thorough article on the Revised Standard Version of the Bible by Luther A. Weigle, dean emeritus of the Divinity School of Yale University, and chairman of the Standard Bible Committee of the National Council of Churches.

In 1956, Dr. Weigle announced the publication of a pamphlet entitled The Living Word, containing a series of articles on words used in the English Bible that have now changed in meaning. Many of these articles were published in the religious press at various times in 1955-56, and they are now brought together with a number of previously unpublished articles in a form that is permanently usable. The pamphlet is published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, New York, and supplements the pamphlet entitled Bible Words That Have Changed in Meaning, which was published in 1955. The two pamphlets are designed for service in teaching in local churches and Bible study classes. They may be secured separately, or as part of a Living Word Packet, which includes five pamphlets in all—the two already mentioned, the Introduction to the Revised Standard Version of the Old Testament, the Introduction to the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament, and Understanding the Scriptures by Montgomery J. Shroyer.

The final Committee sessions dealing with the translation of the Apocrypha were held in the summer of 1956, and the Revised Standard version of the Apocrypha is scheduled for publication in 1957.

There continued to be a widespread response to the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. On June 30, 1956, Thomas Nelson & Sons, New York, publishers, reported total sales of over 4,000,000 copies. In the catalog of the publishers there were listed 32 individual styles. In the 12 months prior to May, 1956, ten new styles were published, including three new imprinted editions with Bible helps. Ten RSV New Testaments have been specially prepared for denominations for use with their Youth Fellowships. About 5,000 retail stores were distributing the Version in the United States and Canada. An edition published in Edinburgh was widely circulated and received an especially good response in Australia.

To June 30, 1956, sales of the New Testament of the RSV were 3,000,000 copies.

CONFRATERNITY EDITIONS

The St. Anthony Guild Press, Paterson 3, N. J., has published for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, the following volumes of Scripture, translated under the auspices of the Episcopal Committee of the Confraternity:

The New Testament

First edition, 1941. In the course of various subsequent reprintings, numerous corrections and emendations were made piecemeal; these are listed collectively in the records as the second edition. The third, and definitive, edition was published in 1947.

The Old Testament

The Book of Genesis:

First printing, 1948. Second printing, with slight emendations, 1949. A third printing, using the 1949 text and including at the end of the book a set of discussion questions, was made in 1950 for the Most Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara, who made it the discussion-club text for that year in all the clubs of his diocese (Kansas City, Mo.). This book, with final corrections, was incorporated in Volume I of the Old Testament, 1952 (see below).

The Book of Psalms:

First printing, 1950. This book, with final corrections, was incorporated in Volume III of the Old Testament (see below).

The Old Testament, Historical Books, Volume I: Genesis-Ruth. First edition, 1952. Second edition, 1953. This is the first of a planned 4-volume translation of the Old Testament (see next entry).

The Old Testament, Sapiential Books, Volume III: Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Canticle of Canticles, Wisdom, Sirach (Ecclesiasticus). First edition, 1955. Volume II, comprising the remainder of the historical books, and Volume IV, the prophetic books, will appear in due course.

TRANSLATIONS

In 1955 the American Bible Society, New York, published the first Old Testament in Luvala (Rhodesia) and the first New Testament in the Conob language (Guatemala). First Gospels appeared in Chinantec, Chontal of Oaxaca, Mezquital Otomi and Mitla Zapotec in Mexico, Mark in Tzutujil (Guatemala), and Tiruray (Philippines), while the following were published for the first time: James-Jude in Sierra Aztec, Hebrews in Maya, Acts in Mazahua, James in Mazatec (all for Mexico); John in Songo (Mozambique), Mark in Subanun and John in Ta'u Sug (Philippines), and John in Tchien (Liberia). Romans was printed in a simplified form of Spanish for use in Mexico and Guatemala. The revision of the Tshwa Bible (Transvaal) was issued. The Kogotai Bible was published in Japan at Easter and is being very widely read. There were in the hands of the printer, or ready for the printer, the revision of the Hiligaynon (Panayan) Bible (Philippines) and the Valera Spanish Bible (promised now for release early in 1958), the revisions of the Cebuan New Testament (Philippines), first New Testaments in Kuskokwim Eskimo (Alaska), Navajo (United States), Totonac, Chol, and Tzeltal (Mexico). First publications include Ruth and Jonah in Chol (Mexico); John in Bandi, Luke in Gio, Mark in Putu and the Acts in Tchien (all for Liberia); and the Acts in San Blas (Panama). The revision of the D'Almeida Bible in Portuguese was nearing completion in Brazil and revisions of the Bible were being prepared by committees of nationals and missionaries in Arabic, Modern Armenian, Cebuan, Ibanag, Ilocano, Luba-Lulua Samareño, Siamese and Tagalog with new translations being produced in Haitian Creole, Simple French (for Haiti), Maya, Mazatec, Ayacucho Quechua, Popular Spanish, Tarascan and Totonac as well as other languages in Africa, Central America, the Philippines and Micronesia.

At the end of 1955, the whole Bible had been published in 207 languages and dialects, Testaments in 265, and at least a complete book of the Bible in 620 more, making a total of 1,092 languages and dialects in which a complete book of the Bible or more has been published by any publisher during the 500 years since the publication of the Gutenberg Bible.

NEW EDITION OF THE TALMUD

A new and revised edition of the ancient Talmud is being printed for the first time in 76 years by the World Academy in Jerusalem. For the first time in history, the Talmud will be punctuated, and will include a digest of unpublished commentaries going back to the 11th century which have been gathered from the four corners of the earth. These valuable documents have been made available from the world's leading libraries and private collections, including the Vatican, Bodleian, Oxford and Columbia University. The last edition of the Talmud was printed by the Rom Press of Vilna, 1880-1886.

At the World Academy's Talmudic Institute in Jerusalem, over one million cross-reference cards have been compiled by its many Rabbinic scholars and research workers. The Talmud to be printed in the Holy Land, contains thirty volumes, approximately 600 large folio pages per volume and will appear in single volume successively. The first volume is expected off the press in 1956.

In the revised edition, a variety of items such as garments, vessels, foods, instruments, diseases, seed, animals, plant and so forth will be carefully defined. Names of men and places, also, will be identified and placed in their historical and geographical setting. Obscure words of foreign origin, Greek, Roman, Persian, and Arabic, will be traced and explained.

The literature in the Talmud embraces a period of about 1,000 years (500 B.C.E.—500 C.E.). The first known printed treatise of the Talmud was released in Spain about 1475, shortly before the Spanish Inquisition. During the succeeding 400 years, about 70 different editions of the Talmud were printed in Spain, Italy, Portugal, Poland, Switzerland, Holland, Germany, Austria, Russia, and Lithuania. The World Academy maintains an office at 122 West 76th St., New York 23, N. Y.

JEWS PUBLISH BIBLICAL ANTHOLOGY

Two volumes in a projected 15-volume edition in English of the Torah Shelamah (a Biblical anthology) is announced by the American Biblical Encyclopedia Society, 114 Liberty Street, New York 6, N. Y.

The Society describes the anthology as designed to consolidate in a single collection translations of every known commentary on the Jewish scriptures made over a period of more than 2,000 years. This monumental project has been the life work of Dr. Menachem Kashner, a Polish rabbinical scholar now living in U.S.A., who has been engaged in the work for over 40 years. Some 15 volumes in Hebrew are completed. It is planned to issue one volume a year.

Father Knows Best

"It is a contract that no company can come anywhere near competing with . . . This is the most wonderful investment and protection I ever saw . . . Just think, if you do not use the dividends, when you get to age 65, you will get back more in cash than the face value of the policy. Yes, this is a wise investment as well as good protection. . . ."

So run the verbatim comments of a father writing to his Seminary student son who had requested his parent's opinion of a plan submitted by The Fund. The father after consultation with his own insurance agent, wrote "Yes, by all means get this if you can."

Other wise sons who are interested in a profitable investment should write to:

Your FUND-RAISING PROGRAM

you raise?*

How long will it take?

A Conference with the American City Bureau will Answer These Important Questions

Fund-raising by the American City Bureau applies a durational perspective to your money goal. Your invitation to us initiates a careful study and evaluation of your financial potential. And we continue at our own expense with a thorough analysis of anticipated interest, enthusiasm and response.

We will then render an objective and constructive report on the findings. If this indicates that we can be of service to you, our proposal will pin-point operational methods and costs. In short, how much you can raise and how long it will take.

So, if you would like to marshal increased goodwill and service as well as new financial strength, call upon the long experience and proven integrity of the American City Bureau.

There is no substitute for experience

THE JOHN MILTON SOCIETY

A World-wide Christian Service to the Blind
160 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y.

The Society was organized in 1928 by the International Council of Religious Education and the Home Missions Council. Soon thereafter the Foreign Missions Conference joined the sponsorship and the three agencies, now Divisions of the National Council of Churches, still sponsor and control the Society by each appointing approximately one fourth of the Board of Directors, the balance being selected by the Board as Members-at-Large because of their special interest in work for the blind.

The main purpose of the Society is to provide Christian literature for the blind. Monthly magazines in braille for adults and children. Sunday school lessons, a hymn book and a number of volumes of a devotional and inspirational character are published by the Society and are sent free to any blind person requesting them.

For those who cannot read braille, similar material, also free, on talking book records is distributed.

The Society aids over thirty Christian schools and homes for the blind in 19 foreign countries and assists in training teachers for these schools.

Denominational boards and agencies provide a limited part of the budget of the Society which is their official representative in providing literature for the blind. The balance of income is provided by interested individuals, Churches, Sunday schools and Church Councils, and a few small foundations.

Picture your Church on Fotoware RAISE FUNDS

Hundreds of church groups are selling these lovely Commemorative plates to raise money for building funds, organs, furnishings, etc.

FOTOWARE is photography on chinaware. Yes, a photograph of YOUR CHURCH is actually reproduced on pre-sensitized china-ware, after which a protective treatment is applied making it a permanent and decorative keepsake.

Your group will enjoy this fascinating and yet dignified means of raising funds. Imagine how eager each member will be to have a lovely gold-bordered plate, picturing her own church in the warm soft tones of a photograph.

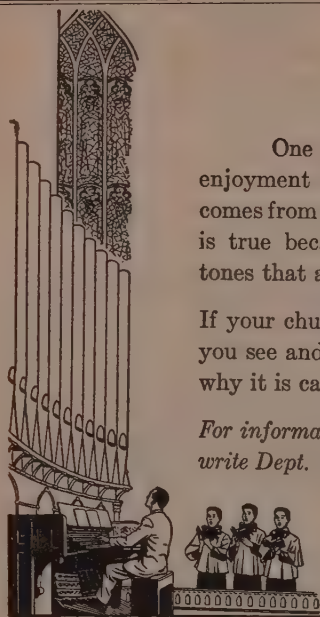

- Initial orders for as few as 25 plates, reorders for 12 or more
- Large 10 inch gold-bordered plates.
- No art charges for removing unsightly objects from photo or adding others to enhance its beauty.

.... BEAUTY

One of the most rewarding things in life is the enjoyment of beautiful music. And when that music comes from a pipe organ, the pleasure is magnified. This is true because only a pipe organ produces musical tones that are rich, full and complete.

If your church is considering a new organ, we suggest you see and hear a Möller. When you do, you'll know why it is called the "Organ of Artists."

AMERICAN LEPROSY MISSIONS, INC.

156 Fifth Avenue, Suite 1134, New York 10, N. Y.

GOLDEN JUBILEE YEAR 1906—1956

In cooperation with 62 denominational and interdenominational mission boards, American Leprosy Missions carries on a world-wide campaign against one of the most feared and baffling afflictions known to man—leprosy, now called Hansen's disease.

Each year more than half a million dollars is sent to some 160 hospital settlements, clinics and villages in 32 countries where more than 60,000 men, women and children receive the most modern treatment for Hansen's disease.

In addition to providing medicines, food, clothing and other essentials, American Leprosy Missions also builds new hospitals, churches, clinics, dormitories, schools and homes for children.

One of the most important aspects of American Leprosy Missions' present-day program is the provision of rehabilitative and vocational training for arrested cases. Because of the dramatic medical and surgical advances in Hansen's disease therapy during the last decade, hundreds of patients are being discharged from our hospitals each year. The difficulties facing these former leprosy cases, both in earning a living and winning the acceptance of society is one of Christian missions' greatest challenges.

Equally emphasized in our ministry to victims of Hansen's disease is the importance of preventing contagion in children. A feebly communicative disease, Hansen's disease is contracted for the most part in childhood, and after prolonged contact with an open case. Mission settlements, therefore, provide separate facilities for the healthy children of patients, where they may be near their parents but safe from contagion.

For further information on Hansen's disease and how Christian missionaries are fighting it throughout the world, write for our free literature.

TRANSLATE . . .

The Society constantly aids translators by counsel, supervision and contributions toward expense. A linguistic specialist on the Society's staff works with translators on the mission fields and checks manuscripts for accuracy.

PUBLISH . . .

Printing belongs to an industrial civilization. Most of the world is still a primitive agricultural economy. Publication of Scriptures in many languages cannot be done commercially. It must be made possible by gifts.

DISTRIBUTE . . .

Scriptures must be sold to assure reader interest. But most of the people of the world cannot pay even production costs. Gifts provide the difference and make distribution possible.

PROMOTE USE . . .

The Society encourages Bible reading by its annual Worldwide Bible Reading program from Thanksgiving to Christmas, including Universal Bible Sunday; and the preparation and distribution of reading schedules, leaflets and other materials.

When You Consider Fund-Raising Counsel For Your Church You Want To Be Sure...

- . . . that the goal which you accept is reasonable and can be achieved, yet is not understated merely to benefit your professional counsel.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES surveys and analyses — prepared without cost or obligation BEFORE your church decides upon a campaign — determine accurately for you (and, as important, for us) the reasonable goal for your congregation. Yet, LAWSON ASSOCIATES consistently achieves higher goals, and at lower cost to you.

- . . . that any effort undertaken in your church will be on a spiritual plane commensurate with the ultimate goal of your church, and not alone for immediate monetary benefits.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES campaigns are planned and directed with proper regard to this fact: while the immediate goal of a funds appeal is monetary and of the moment, there are long-range goals which your church has set and which a properly directed funds appeal should further.

- . . . that the firm with which you deal is worthy of your trust.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES has a long-standing reputation for excellence which is more precious than any short-lived burst of notoriety. This reputation comes from the trust which past clients have placed in us because of our adherence to the items mentioned above. It will continue so long as we continue and improve upon our service to the churches of this and other nations.

FUND-RAISING SERVICE

Spiritual Emphasis

FOR OVER 50 YEARS this firm has maintained a position of outstanding leadership in the field of professional fund-raising counsel. The now widely accepted plan of short term intensive fund-raising was established by the founder of this firm—the late Charles S. Ward.

MORE THAN $1,600,000 has been raised for all types of Religious and Philanthropic Institutions by those associated with this firm. These funds have been used to liquidate indebtedness . . . to build new Church buildings, Parish schools, Rectories, hospitals, colleges, homes for the aged and other Church related causes.

IN ADDITION TO RAISING FUNDS, a basic objective of this firm is to conduct a campaign in such a dignified and efficient manner so as to spiritually strengthen volunteer workers, contributors to the campaign, and the cause itself.

The International Society of Christian Endeavor

1221 East Broad St., Columbus 16, Ohio

Christian Endeavor is an international, interracial, and interdenominational movement with societies for all age groups in Protestant evangelical churches. Since its organization in 1881 Christian Endeavor has spread around the world, now having approximately 3,000,000 members in 80 denominations, in over 50 countries or island groups.

Christian Endeavor has a four-fold purpose: (1) to lead young people to commit themselves to Jesus Christ as Lord; (2) to bring them into the life of the church; (3) to sustain and train them for active Christian service; and (4) to release them through all channels of human activity in the service of God and man. The Christian Endeavor Pledge is the basis for membership.

Societies are organized into local, county, district, state or provincial, and national unions. The International Society includes groups in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Sample materials and organizing kits are available upon request.
